Defining a Mugwump.

The definitions given by children of certain words which elude the lexicographer are sometimes amusing.

One little fellow, for instance, came to his mother with a complaint the other day and said:

"Maw, Johnny is such a mugwump that I won't sleep with him no more." "Why, Charley," said his mother, whatever do you mean? A mugwump? What is that?" "Why don't you know? But then you women don't ought to be expected to know nothin' o' pol'tics. But father knows, an' he says a 'mugwump is a chap what don't take either side, an' that's Johnny all over. He sleeps in the middle an' where do I come in?"

According to Orders. Timetables are distinctly "subject to alteration" nowadays, and frequently at very short notice. On a certain Irish railway a suburban train was taken off, and another altered suddenly. So the station master told the porter-whose name was Pat, of course-to give notice of the change to the passengers as they passed the barrier.

Shortly afterward he heard a terrible din outside his office. Going to ascertain the cause, he found Pat ringing a huge bell violently, and shouting:

"This is to inform ye all that on and after tomorrow the ten o'clock train will sthart at noine-thirty, and there will be no last train."-Answers.

CHANGE Quit Coffee and Got Well.

A woman's coffee experience is interesting. "For two weeks at a time I have taken no food but skim milk, for solid food would ferment and cause such distress that I could hardly breathe at times, also excruciating pain and heart palpitation and all the time I was so nervous and restless.

"From childhood up I had been a coffee and tea drinker and for the past 20 years I had been trying different physicians but could get only temporary relief. Then I read an article telling how some one had been helped by leaving off coffee and drinking Postum and it seemed so pleasant just to read about good health I decided to try Postum.

"I made the change from coffee to Postum and there is such a difference in me that I don't feel like the same person. We all found Postum delicious and like it better than coffee. My health now is wonderfully good.

"As soon as I made the shift to Postum I got better and now my troubles are gone. I am fleshy, my food assimilates, the pressure in the chest and palpitation are all gone, my bowels are regular, have no more stomach trouble and my headaches are gone. Remember I did not use medicines at alljust left off coffee and used Postum steadily." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Phone Record Made of Linen Collar and Cuff Set for Christmas

A record for phone calls is a convenience that every man will appre ciate and a gift that will last indefinitely. The details for making a phone list are shown in the picture above. The cover is made of heavy, unbleached linen, cut in a strip about six inches wide and twelve long. This is edged with buttonhole stitching in black embroidery silk. Four eyelet holes are worked near the center as shown in the picture. A small spray of red flowers, with green foliage is embroidered in one corner and a border, scroll and "Phone Calls" are done in outline stitch in black.

This linen cover encloses a tablet on which names and numbers are written. Narrow red ribbon strung through the eyelets holds cover and tablet together and forms hangers for suspending the record.
